Caleb Fellowes

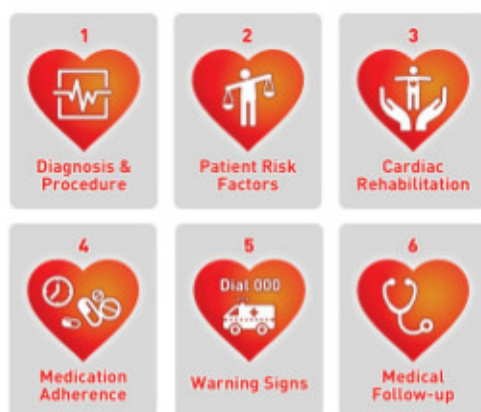

Has successfully completed the
My heart, my life e-learning online course provided by the Heart Foundation SA on June 13, 2020

The My heart, my life e-learning course supports nurses and other health professionals to provide patient education. The six modules contain key information all cardiac patients should receive prior to leaving hospital following an acute coronary syndrome admission.

A quiz score of greater than 84% was required to pass.

Modules include lessons, videos, slideshows
and links to other relevant sites and resources.
