

Australian Nursing & Midwifery Federation
Continuing Professional Education

This is to certify that

Caleb Fellowes

completed an online educational tutorial and assessment with the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Federation on 10th December, 2020

Workplace Health and Safety (WHS) in Healthcare

Describe the importance of WHS; understand the term clinical governance and its importance; identify occupational risk factors present in the setting; explain the risk of different chemicals used in the setting; describe the risk of radiation to nurses in the setting; understand the physical risk factors nurses and midwives are at risk of in the setting; understand the importance of appropriate manual handling within the workplace; describe the impact of bullying and occupational violence on an individual; explain different biological risk factors within the setting; explain what is risk management, describe the process of issue resolution; explain the role of SWA and its role in work related injuries; explain the rights and responsibilities of both the employee and employer in the workplace in regards to a safe work environment; and describe the key steps in returning to work following an injury.

1.5 CPE Hours

Federal Education Officer

www.anmf.org.au/cpe